

Theresa Daily

Blue Door Artists

205 ½ Centre Street

Fernandina Beach, Florida

Theresa is largely a self taught artist working in water color & acrylic on paper & canvas. Believing “that we all have some measure of creativity as we are made in God’s image”, she has developed her style by observing the world around her and listening to God for direction. Loving the bright colors of the Caribbean with the blues of the ocean and sky and the neutrals of the sand and shells, she sets out to gain wisdom and clarity for God’s perfect design for her growth as an artist. “My goal is simply to express my love for God and His creation by painting the things that he has surrounded me with”. She is currently expanding her work to more contemporary abstract design, while still keeping a sense of realism.

Theresa began her career as owner of an art supply store, The Splash, here on the island. She took classes & workshops with Karen McFadyen and Pat Lusk, exhibited in shows from Virginia to south Florida and eventually opened her own studio/gallery at the Blue Door Artists. She now shares that space with fellow artist Carol Sprovtsoff.

Theresa’s award winning work can be seen in private & public collections in the United States, Canada, & Europe. They can also be viewed at the Blue Door Artists studio/gallery at 205 ½ Centre Street. She can be reached at 904.556.7783 or at www.theresadaily.com.

